Calendar of nudevents: www.natury.de/kal-en/

II. General information on data processing

1. Scope of personal data processing

Basically, personal data of our users are processed only to the extent necessary to make a functional website, our contents and services available. The processing of personal data of our users consistently only takes place with the user's consent, except for cases in which prior consent cannot be obtained for factual reasons and processing of data is permitted by legal regulations.

2. Legal basis for the processing of personal data

Insofar as the consent of the data subject for the processing of personal data is obtained, Art. 6 para. 1 lit. a EU Data Protection Regulation (DSGVO) serves as the legal basis.

In the processing of personal data needed for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is a party, Article 6 para. 1 lit. b DSGVO serves as the legal basis. This also applies to processing operations that are necessary for the performance of pre-contractual measures.

3. Data deletion and storage period

The personal data of the person concerned will be deleted or blocked as soon as the purpose of the storage lapses. Furthermore, data may be stored if such provision is made by the European or national legislator in Union regulations, laws, or other regulations to which the person responsible is subject. Unless there is a need for continuation of the storing of the data for the purpose of concluding or fulfilling a contract, data are also blocked or deleted when a storage period prescribed by the aforementioned standards expires.

III. Provision of the website and creation of log files

1. Description and scope of data processing

Whenever you visit our website, our system automatically collects data and information from the computer system of the calling computer.

Following data is collected:

- (1) information on the browser type and version used
- (2) the user's operating system
- (3) the Internet service provider of the user
- (4) the IP address of the user (anonymous, i.e. without identifying part)
- (5) date and time of access
- (6) websites from which the user's system accesses our website
- (7) websites called up by the user's system via our website.

The data is stored in the log files of our system. This data is not stored together with other personal data of the user. Below is an example of a log file entry:

52.59.232.0 - - [01/Jan/2020:10:27:37 +0000] "HEAD /index.php/de/berichte/berichte-aus-2013/vom-naturistengehoeft-zum-nudistenhof HTTP/1.1" 200 - natury.de
"https://aws.adolf-koch.de" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 10.0; Win64; x64) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko)
Chrome/70.0.3538.102 Safari/537.36" "-"

The identifying part of the IP address is set to 0. Further information: date/time, loaded natury page, origin (adolf-koch.de), browser used.

2. Legal basis for the data processing

The legal basis for the temporary storage of data is Art. 6 para. 1 lit. f DSGVO.

3. Purpose of the data processing

The temporary storage of log data is used for statistical evaluation of the website visits.

4. Duration of storage

The data is deleted as soon as it is no longer required for the purpose of its collection (automatic deletion of log files takes place after 6 weeks).

5. Possibility of objection and removal

The collection of data for the provision of the website and the storage of the data in log files is mandatory for the operation of the website. Objection by the user to this collection is therefore not possible.

6. Data processing with Google Analytics

Due to our legitimate interest in the analysis and optimisation of our online offer in the sense of Art. 6 Par. 1 lit. f. DSGVO we use Google Analytics, a web analysis service of Google LLC. Google uses cookies. The information generated by these cookies about the use of the online offer by the user is usually transferred to a Google server in the USA, where it is stored and evaluated.

Google is certified under the Privacy Shield Agreement, guaranteeing compliance with European data protection law.

Google uses this information on our behalf on the basis of a contract for commissioned data processing to evaluate the use of our online offer, to generate reports on the activities within this online offer and to provide us with further services associated with the use of this online offer and the use of the Internet. Since only data with IP anonymisation is transferred to Google, no user profiles, but only user group-specific statements can be obtained from the processed data.

The further use of the transmitted data by Google as well as the acquisition of additional data by Google

- for Google products and services
 - for technical support
 - for Google Account Specialists
 - for Google sales specialists
- are explicitly prohibited through our contract.

IV. Use of cookies

a) Description and scope of data processing

Our website uses cookies to identify the visitor's session and to be able to deliver the content requested by the visitor. These technical cookies are absolutely necessary for the website operation. Objection by the user to this collection is therefore not possible. Following example shows that natuery cookies do not contain any personal data or executable script code:

V. Newsletter

1. Description and scope of data processing

On our website you can subscribe to free information services about events. When registering for the newsletter, the data from the input mask is transmitted to us. For the processing of the data, your consent will be obtained during the registration process and reference will be made to this data protection declaration.

2. Legal basis for the data processing

The legal basis for the processing of data after registration for the newsletter by the user is Art. 6 para. 1 lit. a DSGVO if the user has given his consent.

3. Purpose of the data processing

The collection of the user's e-mail address is used exclusively to deliver the event information.

4. Duration of storage

The data will be deleted as soon as they are no longer necessary for the purpose of their collection. The user's e-mail address is therefore stored as long as the subscription to the newsletter is active.

5. Possibility of objection and removal

The user may at any time unsubscribe from the subscription to the event information. For this purpose, a corresponding note is included in every event Information. The unsubscription is always done by using the same form in which the event Information was commissioned.

VI. Registration

1. Description and scope of data processing

On our website naturygal.de the opportunity to register is offered. The personal data are entered into an input mask, which is transmitted to natury and stored. The data will not be transferred to any third parties. Following data is collected during the registration process:

Name / pseudonym

user name

password.

During the registration process the user's consent to the processing of this data is obtained.

2. Legal basis for the data processing

Legal basis for the processing of the data is Art. 6 para. 1 lit. a DSGVO if the user has given his consent.

3. Purpose of the data processing

User registration is required for the provision of certain contents and services on our website.

4. Duration of storage

The data are deleted as soon as they are no longer necessary for the purpose of their collection, i.e. as soon as the user revokes his registration. Deletion takes place not later than 7 days after this revocation.

5. Possibility of objection and removal

As a user you have the option to cancel your registration at any time. You can have the data stored about you changed at any time. If you want to do so, please send an according message via the contact form.

VII. Contact form and e-mail contact

1. Description and scope of data processing

Our website contains a contact form that can be used for electronic contact. If you use this form, the data entered into the input mask are transmitted to us and stored. These data are:

name

e-mail address

text.

Your consent for the processing of the data will be obtained during the sending process, and reference will be made to this privacy policy.

Alternatively, it is possible to contact us via the e-mail address provided. In this case the user's personal data transmitted with the e-mail will be stored by us.

In this context, the data will not be passed on to any third parties but will be used exclusively for the processing of our conversation with the user.

2. Description and scope of data processing

Our website offers a form to register for events, which can be used for electronic contact. If a user takes advantage of this option, the data entered into the input mask will be transmitted to us and stored. These data are:

name / pseudonym

e-mail address

age (optional)

number of registered persons event for which participation is desired arrival and departure options

postcode and city, phone options for participation in a retreat experience (optional)

text.

For the processing of the data, your consent will be obtained during the sending process, and reference will be made to these privacy policy terms. The registration for all data will be forwarded to the initiator of the corresponding event. By registering, the registering party gives its consent to this forwarding.

3. Legal basis for the data processing

The legal basis for the processing of the data is Art. 6 para. 1 lit. a DSGVO if the user has given his consent.

The legal basis for the processing of data transmitted in the course of sending an e-mail is Art. 6 para. 1 lit. f DSGVO. If the e-mail contact aims at the conclusion of a contract, additional legal basis for processing is Art. 6 para. 1 lit. b DSGVO.

4. Purpose of the data processing

The processing of the personal data from the input mask only serves for the processing of the establishment of contact. In case of contacting us by e-mail, this is also the necessary legitimate interest in the processing of the data.

The other personal data processed during the sending process serve to prevent misuse of the contact form and to ensure the security of our own IT systems.

4. Duration of storage

The data will be deleted as soon as they are no longer necessary for the purpose of their collection. For the personal data from the input mask of the contact form and those sent by e-mail, this is the case as soon as the respective conversation with the user has ended. The conversation is terminated when it can be concluded from the circumstances that the matter in question has been finally clarified.

Personal data that is additionally collected during the sending process will be deleted after a period of seven days at the latest.

5. Possibility of objection and removal

It is possible for the user to revoke his consent to the processing of personal data at any time. The user may at any time contact us by e-mail to inform us that he is strictly against the storage of his personal data. In such case the conversation cannot be continued, and all personal data stored in the course of the contact will be deleted.

VIII. Rights of the data subject

If personal data is processed by you, you are a data subject within the meaning of the DSGVO and you are entitled to the following rights in relation to the person responsible:

1. Right of information

You can request confirmation from the person responsible as to whether personal data concerning you is being processed by us.

If such processing has taken place, you can request information from the person responsible on the following:

- (1) the purposes for which the personal data are processed
- (2) the categories of personal data which are processed
- (3) the recipients, or recipients' categories, to whom your personal data have been or will be disclosed
- (4) the planned duration of storage of your personal data or, if it is not possible to give specific details, criteria for determining the duration of storage
- (5) the existence of a right of rectification or erasure of your personal data, a right to have the processing limited by the person responsible or a right to contradict to such processing
- (6) the existence of a right of appeal to a supervisory authority
- (7) if the personal data are not collected from the data subject, any available information regarding the source of the data
- (8) the existence of automated decision-making, including profiling, in accordance with Art. 22 (1) and (4) DSGVO and - at least in these cases - meaningful information on the logic involved and the scope and intended effects of such processing on the data subject.

You have the right to request information as to whether the personal data concerning you is transferred to a third country or to an international organisation. In this context, you may request to be informed of the appropriate safeguards pursuant to Art. 46 DSGVO in connection with the transfer.

2. Right of rectification

if any of your personal data is incorrect or incomplete, you have the right to obtain its rectification and/or integration from the person responsible. The person responsible shall make the correction without delay.

4. Right of limiting the processing

Under following conditions, you may request that the processing of your personal data be restricted:

- (1) if you dispute the accuracy of your personal data for a period which enables the person responsible to verify the accuracy of the personal data
- (2) if the processing is unlawful, you object to the deletion of the personal data and request the restriction of the use of the personal data instead
- (3) if the person responsible no longer needs the personal data for their processing, but you need them in order to assert, exercise or defend legal claims, or
- (4) if you have lodged an objection to the processing pursuant to Art. 21 (1) DSGVO and it is not yet clear whether the legitimate reasons of the person responsible outweigh your reasons.

Where the processing of your personal data has been restricted, such data may only be processed, with the exception of storage, with your consent or for the purpose of pursuing, exercising or defending legal claims or protecting the rights of another natural or legal person, or on grounds of an important public interest of the Union or a Member State.

If the restriction on processing has been restricted in accordance with the above conditions, you will be informed by the person responsible before the restriction is lifted.

4. Right of deletion

a) Obligation to delete

You may request the person responsible to delete your personal data without delay and the person responsible is obliged to delete such data without delay if one of the following reasons applies:

- (1) your personal data are no longer necessary for the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed
- (2) you revoke your consent on which the processing was based pursuant to Art. 6 para. 1 lit. a or Art. 9 para. 2 lit. a DSGVO and there is no other legal basis for the processing.
- (3) you submit an objection to the processing pursuant to Art. 21 Para. 1 DSGVO and there are no overriding legitimate reasons for the processing, or you submit an objection to the processing pursuant to Art. 21 Para. 2 DSGVO
- (4) your personal data have been processed unlawfully
- (5) the deletion of your personal data is necessary to comply with a legal obligation under Union law or the law of the Member States to which the person responsible is subject, or
- (6) your personal data have been collected in relation to information society services offered, in accordance with Art. 8(1) of the DSGVO.

b) Information to third parties

If the person responsible has made your personal data public and is obliged to delete them in accordance with Art. 17 Para. 1 DSGVO, it shall take appropriate measures, including technical measures, taking into account available technology and implementation costs, to inform persons responsible who process those personal data that you, as a data subject, have requested them to delete all links to these personal data or copies or replications of these personal data.

c) Exceptions

The right of cancellation does not exist insofar as the processing is necessary

(1) on the exercise of the right to freedom of expression and information

(2) to comply with a legal obligation requiring processing under Union or national law to which the person responsible is subject or to perform a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the person responsible

(3) for reasons of public interest in the field of public health pursuant to Art. 9 para. 2 lit. h and i and Art. 9 para. 3 DSGVO

(4) for archival, scientific, or historical research purposes in the public interest or for statistical purposes pursuant to Art. 89 para. 1 DSGVO, insofar as the right referred to in section a) is likely to render impossible or seriously prejudice the attainment of the objectives of such processing, or

(5) to assert, exercise or defend legal claims.

5. Right to be informed

If you have exercised the right to rectify, erase or limit the processing, the person responsible is obliged to notify all recipients to whom your personal data have been disclosed of this rectification, erasure or limitation of processing, unless this proves impossible or involves a disproportionate effort.

You have the right to be informed of these recipients by the person responsible.

6. Right to data portability

You have the right to receive your personal data you have provided to the person responsible in a structured, common, and machine-readable format. You also have the right to have this data communicated to another data controller without interference from the controller to whom the personal data has been made available, provided that

(1) the processing is based on a consent pursuant to Art. 6 para. 1 lit. a DSGVO or Art. 9 para. 2 lit. a DSGVO or on a contract pursuant to Art. 6 para. 1 lit. b DSGVO and

(2) the processing is carried out by means of automated procedures.

In exercising this right, you also have the right to obtain that the personal data concerning you be transferred directly from one person responsible to another person responsible, in so far as this is technically feasible. The freedoms and rights of other persons must not be affected by this.

The right to data transferability shall not apply to processing of personal data which is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the person responsible.

7. Right of objection

You have the right to object at any time, for reasons arising from your particular situation, to the processing of your personal data carried out on the basis of Article 6 paragraph 1 letter e or f of the DSGVO; this also applies to profiling based on these provisions.

The person responsible no longer processes your personal data unless he can demonstrate compelling reasons for processing which are worthy of protection and which outweigh your interests, rights, and freedoms, or unless the processing serves to assert, exercise or defend legal claims.

If your personal data are processed for the purpose of direct marketing, you have the right to object to the processing of your personal data for the purpose of such marketing, including profiling, insofar as it is linked to such direct marketing, at any time.

If you object to processing for the purposes of direct marketing, your personal data will no longer be processed for those purposes.

You have the option to exercise your right of objection in relation to the use of information society services, without prejudice to Directive 2002/58/EC, by means of automated procedures using technical specifications.

8. Right of revocation of the declaration of consent under data protection law

You have the right to revoke your data protection declaration of consent at any time. Such revocation does not affect the legality of the processing that has taken place on the basis of your consent before the revocation.

9. Automated decision in individual cases including profiling

You have the right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing, including profiling, which has legal effect on you or significantly affects you in a similar way. This shall not apply if the decision

(1) is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract between you and the person responsible

(2) is authorised by Union or national legislation to which the person responsible is subject and that legislation provides for appropriate measures to safeguard your rights and freedoms and your legitimate interests, or

(3) with your express consent.

However, these decisions may not be based on special categories of personal data in accordance with Art. 9 Para. 1 DSGVO, unless Art. 9 Para. 2 lit. a or g DSGVO applies and appropriate measures have been taken to protect rights and freedoms and your legitimate interests.

With regard to the cases referred to in (1) and (3), the person responsible shall take appropriate measures to safeguard the rights and freedoms and your legitimate interests, which shall include at least the right to obtain the intervention of a person from the person responsible, to express his or her point of view and to contest the decision.

10. Right of appeal to a supervisory authority

Without prejudice to any other administrative or judicial remedy, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, in particular in the Member State in which you are domiciled, have your place of work or in which the place is where the alleged infringement occurred, if you consider that the processing of your personal data is in breach of the DSGVO. The supervisory authority to which the complaint has been lodged shall inform the complainant of the status and outcome of the complaint, including the possibility of a judicial remedy under Art. 78 DSGVO.
